Histories for Kids, Inc., Programs for Children

Biographical Information

Nationally known actor, Terry Lynch specializes in historical portrayal and storytelling for children of all ages. His one man interactive presentations give audiences a new, first person perspective on the people and events that make up our history and culture.

Along with his wife Laura, a certified educator for over 20 years, and member of “Who’s Who in American Education” and “Who’s Who Among Young American Professionals”, Terry co-authored two books: Mistakes Happen: An Historical Guide to Overcoming Adversity and Nicholas Comes to America, the Story Of Santa Claus.

With a Histories for Kids, Inc. program remember, history happens when you least expect it!

Quotes

“Wonderful! All of the kids were completely engaged. The classroom visits were perfect for the Kdg, 1st grade. Nice interaction with the students, very informative.”

—Landmark Elementary School
McHenry, IL

“Mr. Lynch does it again! Our students were engaged and learning in a cooperative way. The children were happy to become part of the learning experience! Little did they expect to become actors or artists at the assembly. Thank you for making history come alive.”

—St. Albert the Great School
Burbank, IL

“I felt you presented the history of the Underground Railroad in a sensitive and appropriate manner to children of 5-11 years of age. I found the show to not only be educational but entertaining, especially by allowing the four children to participate in the story as historical characters.”

—Homewood-Flossmoor Park District
Flossmoor, IL

“The program was excellent! The actor connected well with the audience and taught about history in an interesting way. He answered questions with patience and great enthusiasm.”

—Schaumburg Township District Library
Schaumburg, IL

“The students really enjoyed the performance. All of them were totally focused for the entire assembly.”

—St. William School
Janesville, WI
